2. In February 1949 the Tudeh Party was outlawed. Those of its members who escaped arrest went underground. They are now being regrouped secretly and the present secret organization is, [redacted] as follows:

25X1A

- a. Headquarters Organization in Tehran (comprises 5 bodies on a national level).

- (1) The Central Committee of the Tudeh Party.
- (2) The Central Committee of the Tudeh Youth organization.
- (3) The "Democratic" Committee.
- (4) Central Committee of Trade Unions.
- (5) Central Administration of Provincial Committees.

- b. The Tehran Committee (provincial or local level) is organized in 12 sections, or "bakshs," corresponding to the 12 districts of the City of Tehran. Each baksh comprises 4 cells or "khausha." Each cell is composed of 19 members, grouped in sub-cells of 3 members each and in such a way that each member is in contact with and knows only 3 or 4 other party members.

3. [redacted] details regarding the organization of the Resht Committee (provincial) of the Tudeh Party. This committee includes the Tudeh Youth organization of Resht and the Tudeh Trade Unions of Resht.

- a. The Tudeh Youth is headed by three Party members whose names are:

Neghabati (fnu) - who operates a cell of eight individuals.

Alidust (fnu) - who operates a cell of nine individuals.

Hushang Darvish - who operates a cell of eight individuals.

These cells are organized in such a way that no individual knows more than two or three other Party members.

- b. The Tudeh labor movement is being organized by a three-man Central Committee consisting of:

Mustafa Muha-jir

Rahmat Abadi

Balarizhan Kafash

These three Central Committee members have nine Party members working under them who are organizing the Bricklayers Union, the Shoemakers Union, and other labor groups. These nine Party members, who are in direct contact with a member of the Central Committee, control cells of as many as nine members each.
